Quiet Ageing Outer (Group 8)

The majority of the neighbourhoods in this Group are focussed down the eastern side of London, north and south of the Thames. Neighbourhoods from Havering, Bexley, Bromley, Croydon and Sutton are represented, with a single neighbourhood from Hillingdon completing the Group. According to the 2011 London Output Area (OA) Classification, this group consists of key OA classifications of Ageing City Fringe (58% of OAs), and Intermediate Lifestyles (28%). In this Group:

The variables with a proportion far below[1] the London group average are:

- Persons aged 25 to 44
- Persons that are single
- Persons that are mixed/multiple ethnic group
- Persons that are Asian/Asian British - Pakistani
- Persons that are Asian/Asian British - Bangladeshi
- Persons that are Asian/Asian British - Chinese and Other
- Persons that are Black/African/Caribbean/Black British
- Persons that are Arab or other ethnic groups
- Persons that are born in other EU countries (at 2001)
- Persons that are born in other EU countries (since 2001)
- Households with non-dependent children
- Households with full-time students
- Persons in flats
- Households that are social rented
- Households that are private rented
- Persons who are schoolchildren or full-time students aged 16 and over
- Persons using public transport for work
- Persons using foot, bicycle or other for work
- Persons unemployed

- Births
- Persons working in accommodation and food service activities sectors
- Unauthorised absence in schools
- Poor air quality
- Area that is domestic buildings
- Area that is non domestic buildings
- Area that is road
- Area that is path
- Incapacity Benefit Claimants
- Total Job Seekers Allowance (JSA) claimants
- Children living in out-of-work benefit claimant households
- Areas in neighbourhood shown as nationally deprived
- Deprivation extent
- Scale of income
- Rate of National Insurance number registrations to overseas nationals
- Public Transport accessibility
- Underground footfall

The variables with a proportion close to[2] the London group average are:

- Number of dwellings

The variables with a proportion far above[3] the London group average are:

- Persons aged 45 to 64
- Persons aged 65 to 89
- Persons aged 90 and over
- Population density
- Persons that are married or in a registered same-sex civil partnership
- Persons that are White
- Persons that are born in United Kingdom and Ireland
- Households with no children
- Persons in detached households
- Persons in semi-detached households
- Households that are owned or shared ownership
- Persons providing unpaid care
- Persons whose highest level of qualification is level 1, level 2 or apprenticeship
- Persons whose highest level of qualification: level 3 qualifications
- Households with 2 or more cars/vans
- Persons using private transport for work

- Persons working in mining, quarrying and construction sectors
- Persons working in manufacturing sector
- Persons working in energy, water and air conditioning supply sectors
- Persons working in public administration and defence; compulsory social security sectors
- Deaths
- Mean age
- GCSE scores
- Authorised absence in schools
- Households deficient to access to public open space
- Area that is domestic gardens
- Area that is greenspace
- Geographic area
- Number of properties sold
- Turnout Borough election

See next page for Radar chart

Radar chart showing range-standardised differences of each variable from the grouping mean (red line).

Outer values show a level far higher than the London group average and Inner values show a level far lower than the London group average.

See following page for variable key

1. For a variable to be 'far below average' it must have a difference of more than 70% below the London mean (red line).
2. For a variable to be 'close to the average' it must have a difference less than 5% either above or below the London mean.
3. For a variable to 'far above average' it must have a difference of more than 70% above the London mean.